

The 2010 Spring Ratepayers' meeting was held in the Allan Parkland Community Hall on Monday, April 4, 2011. There were approximately 94 ratepayers in attendance plus 31 staff and invited guests.

Reeve Dan Greschuk called the meeting to order at 7:30 p.m. welcoming everyone and thanking the CWL for supper. He then appointed Jim Puckett, Jack Hay and Norm Halldorson as the resolutions committee for tonight's meeting and went on to introduce the evening's invited guests, Councillors and staff mentioning their years with the RM.

Reeve Dan Greschuk introduced Amanda Everitt, the RM's Saskatoon Health Rep, to talk about a Respiratory Clinic being held Monday, April 18 from 12 – 7 p.m. at the Bradwell Community Center. Amanda mentioned who were first responders in the RM and also mentioned Elstow and the RM of Blucher were both receiving an AED.

Reeve's
Remarks

Reeve Dan Greschuk presented the municipal report of 2010 expenditures and 2011 programs.

Reeve Greschuk reported on the following::

- ? ? Road conditions
- ? ? Potential flooding
- ? ? Employees and costs
- ? ? Mandatory levies
- ? ? RM equipment and purchase rotation
- ? ? Road and gravel expenditures
- ? ? Population and residential development
- ? ? Taxes from 1987 compared to 2010
- ? ? Taxation and the percentage paid by each property class

Questions:

- ? ? Jack Hay - Tankfill at new RM shop
- ? ? Herb Wortman – scentless chamomile
- ? ? Herb Wortman - taxes compared to other municipalities
- ? ? Sunset Estates – organized hamlet designation
- ? ? Road construction
- ? ? Dust control
- ? ? Sask Power 220 KV power line location

Comments:

- ? ? Pit Road garbage in ditches
- ? ? Magnets on the back of gravel trucks
- ? ? Highway No. 16
- ? ? Physical addresses
- ? ? Jack Hay
 - ? ? Western Development Museum Chairman
 - ? ? Ag Health and Safety Network
 - ? ? Inducting James Dosman into the Agricultural Hall of Fame

The evening concluded with a number of door prizes, which were gratefully contributed by many various businesses in the RM. Rod Selby and Barb Carlos each won 10 yards of gravel delivered by the RM.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:10 p.m.